

INTIMEDIATE FIRE PREVENTION AND FIRE FIGHTING

Course Aim

The purpose of this module is to provide the emergency response team members, with the knowledge and skills to work safely and competently when responding to emergency incidents involving fire.

Course Content

On completion of this training, participants will be able to demonstrate a competence in the theory and practice of the following:

- Combustion process
- Fire behaviour
- Extinguishment for each class of fire using portable extinguishers and hose lines
- Introduction to Breathing Apparatus
- Personal protective clothing
- Operation of fire fighting equipment
- Detection and suppression systems
- Fire suppression strategies and tactics
- Benefits of safety inspections and maintenance training

Competency

Participants are required to pass an assessment of practical skills and a written or verbal examination of theory.

Pre Requisites

Participants are required to be medically fit have a valid medical certificate.

Course Duration

This course is conducted over two (2) days.

Method of Training

Classroom theory sessions followed by practical periods, conducted at a Fire Training Establishment.