

Course Outline

Offshore Safety Training Centre
Vung Tau City, Vietnam
Tel : (84) 64 551098
Fax : (84) 64 612699
Email : enquiries@seatagoffshore.com
Website: www.seatagoffshore.com

(501) - INTERNATIONAL SECURITY of PORTS and SERVICES

COURSE AIM

To provide personnel working on Mobil Offshore Units, Installations and Vessels within the Oil and Gas Industry with sufficient knowledge and expertise of Security requirements according to the ISPS Code and DOTARS requirements.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of the Training course participants will have sufficient knowledge of Maritime Security obligations, Port facility security requirements, identify security risks and equipment, recognise possible threats and devices used, be aware of reporting procedures and contingency procedures.

COURSE CONTENT

- Sea & Air freight logistics chain
- Introduction to Terrorism
- ISPS terms, Code listings and Compliance
- Threats to Shipping and installations
- Case studies of Threats and Vulnerabilities
- Maritime Security and the IMO standards
- Contingency Procedures
- Reporting Procedures
- Threat Recognition
- Security Equipment
- Facility Obligations

COMPETENCY

Participants are required to give freely by means of two way communications through out the presentation, and will be assessed on their understanding of the course by written examination.

PRE REQUISITE

There are no pre-requisites to attend this course.

COURSE DURATION

This course is conducted over one (1) day

METHOD OF TRAINING

The course is presented as a power point presentation, with a practical component in the second part of the course where a walk through of facility and procedural strengths and weaknesses are identified. This course is best delivered offshore on the facility, and can be delivered in several components in order to capture the whole POB