

HELICOPTER REFUELLING

Course Aim

To provide personnel who are involved with helicopter refuelling with the knowledge of procedures used when conducting refuelling operations

Course Objectives

By the end of program personnel will have an understanding and knowledge of:

- Helicopter safety / helicopter identification aspects
- Health and safety hazards
- Static electricity hazards
- Quality control and fuel sampling procedures
- Helicopter refuelling procedures - engine stopped
- Helicopter refuelling procedures – engine running

Assessment Methods

- Written or oral exam
- Conduct a practical refuelling exercise

Competency

Participants are required to pass an assessment of practical skills and a written or verbal examination of theory.

Pre Requisite

All participants for the Helideck Assistant course have a current HUET certificate, a current first aid certificate, a current offshore fire fighting certificate, a good working understanding of the English language

Course Duration

This course is conducted over one (1) day.

Method of Training

The course is conducted at a venue suitable for the theory and practical instruction of all participants and will include the provision of catering, visual teaching aids and writing materials.